Blackhawks oust Trojans in 13-C

MISSOULA — Jesse Boone's two free throws with 2.8 seconds left in overtime gave Seeley-Swan a 56-55 win over Drummond in the consolation game of the District 13-C boys' basketball tournament at Missoula Hellgate High School Saturday night.

Seeley-Swan's win, coupled with Missoula Valley Christian's 74-57 victory over Victor in the championship game, created a challenge game at 7 p.m. Monday between the Blackhawks and Pirates. The winner will join Valley Christian in the Class C Western Divisional at Carroll College in Helena next Thursday through Saturday.

Matt Schneiter led the Blackhawks with 21 points. Pat Morin netted 12 and Jesse Boone tallied 11 as Seeley-Swan repeated its first-round win over Drummond.

Drummond got a game-high 22 points from 6-2 junior forward Robin Piippo. Matt Olson chipped in with 12.
