That gave Frederick two free throws, but he missed the first, sealing Seeley's win — and ending Scobey's win streak at 29. He made the second free throw to cap the scoring.

Both Haines and Scobey coach Dave Selvig agreed that Schneiter's bomb was key. Nieskens had just scored four straight points, including two free throws with 27 seconds left, to put the Spartans up 43-40. Then Schneiter squared up from deep.

The snow-bound Spartans — who traveled 3-1/2 hours by bus, then 80 minutes by plane to reach Billings Thursday — led 23-19 at halftime, but didn't look good doing it.

"We seemed a little flat," Selvig said. "We seemed to get tired, in the first half. I don't know if it was the floor length, or whatever." One answer could be Scobey's travel problems, but Selvig wouldn't say as much. "I'm not going to blame it on that — we knew we had to come to play."

Nieskens scored a game-high 19 points, and Frederick — the 1996 state tournament MVP — added 13. The duo combined to hit just 9 of 31 field goal attempts, however.

Cascade 74, Bridger 53

The Badgers took control of their first-ever state-tourney game right away, getting 16 first-quarter points from Tyler Cotton while building a 32-13 lead. Cotton — who didn't practice all week because of the flu — had his second 3-point play with 33 seconds left in the quarter, then made a steal and coast-to-coast the second quarter as the lead grew to 49-27. Bridger's zone defense couldn't stop the drives of Cotton and point guard Joe Rasmussen, and the Badgers shot 58 percent in the first half.

Marquis added 21 points and Rasmussen 10 for the Badgers, who cooled off in the second half, and ended up shooting 46 percent. The three combined for just 11 second-half points.

Clyde Keith led Bridger with 24 points, but hit just 7 of 24 field goal attempts against Cascade's matchup zone. Brett Zent and Spencer Hay added 11 points each. Overall, the Scouts (18-7) shot just 32 percent. They'll take on Scobey in a loser-out game at 12:30 p.m. today.

"They're subdued," Osborne said of his players. "They know they didn't play the way they're capable of playing. I'm still proud of them — we just fell to a better team today."
